Catholic Campaign for Human Development: Nearly 37 million Americans have fallen into poverty – the highest number in years. As their futures fall, so does the future of our nation. Join the CCHD and help break the cycle of poverty. CCHD supports self-help projects of poor and low-income people working together to improve their lives and their communities; funds also support the Black and Indian Mission, antipoverty education efforts in our parishes and schools, and administration of these funds. Please give generously to the CCHD in today's collection.
