A Few Words from the Parish Office

Fr. Frank collapsed Friday evening and was ultimately transported to Riverside Hospital in Columbus; where he is at this time. He is reported to be in fair condition – and he wants his cell phone back – not sure whether his family will let him have it. Stress tests etc... are scheduled for early next week, until then he is ordered to stay in the hospital. (We will see how that works.)

We will try to keep everyone informed of this situation. Please remember to keep Fr. Frank in your prayers.

Next Weekend, with Catholics in local churches throughout the world, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday, offering our prayers and sacrifices for the missionary task.

God Bless You, and have a Great Week!

If we have died with [Christ Jesus] we shall also live with him;

If we persevere we shall also reign with him. - 2 Timothy 2:11-12a

THE WINDOWS: Anyone interested in helping paint the windows for the altar? We will be meeting on Monday evening October 15th at 6:30pm in the Religious Education Building. Anyone interested in joining to paint and visit please come. Dress casual and bring munchies. If you have any questions contact Lorie Bukowski at 981-7273. Thank You.

Greenfield Food Cupboard: Friday, October 19th, volunteers should report at 1:30 PM to help setup; contact Jackie Soards with any questions – 981-3595.

Memorial Mass: Plans are being made for the annual celebration of All Souls Day on Friday Nov 2nd; if you have any loved ones, family or friends who have died this past year, and would like to have them remembered at this special celebration, please call Mary Lou Zoldak at 981-2630 or Jackie Soards 981-3595 or call the parish office at 981-2785.

Ladies Auxiliary: Meeting this Tuesday, October 16th after the 7:00 PM Mass.

Family Perspectives: Only one leper returned to thank Jesus for being cured. Sounds a lot like our homes. We routinely do so much for each other that it is easy to forget to say thanks. Like Jesus, we shouldn't get upset by this. In the Christian family parents, children and spouses are called to give without always expecting return.
