A Few Words from Fr. Frank

Thanks to everybody for your prayers and support. I was discharged from the hospital Tuesday in fairly good shape, but I need to take a little time off. I'll be back on Sunday October 28th for the 11:00am Mass. Special thanks to Nancy Williams and Pat Hays for holding things together. Be sure of my prayers for all of you!

Today, World Mission Sunday, with Catholics of the world, we are called to offer, at this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of our Lord – to help the poor and suffering experience the healing love and peace of Jesus.

God Bless You, and have a Great Week!

I lift up my eyes towards the mountains; whence shall help come to me?
My help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

-Psalm 121:1-2

Thank you for your continued prayers and financial support of our parish ministries.

UPDATE: Fr. Frank is now resting in Florida with his brother. A final diagnosis has not been made, but we're sure that exhaustion and a little bit of stress had something to do with it. Although still a little tired, he is enjoying the weather and a day-long fishing outing yesterday. His brother is still trying to limit his access to his cell phone! Fr. Frank wants all of you to know that he is praying for you, and that he is very grateful for all of your prayers and concern. Next Saturday we will have a visiting priest for the 4:30 mass, but Fr. Frank plans to be back in Greenfield for next Sunday's masses.

Memorial Mass: Plans are being made for the annual celebration of All Souls Day on Friday Nov 2nd; if you have any loved ones, family or friends who have died this past year, and would like to have them remembered at this special celebration, please call Mary Lou Zoldak at 981-2630 or Jackie Soards 981-3595 or call the parish office at 981-2785.

Ladies Auxiliary News: Pew cleaning on November 3rd at 9:30 AM – volunteers needed.

Family Perspectives: The widow in today's gospel was successful because she was persistent. Children tend to be naturally persistent; they will repeat the same request over and over until an exhausted parent gives in, and then later will feel guilty for not being stronger. The gospel encourages us "not to lose heart." Our challenge is to be a GOOD – not perfect – PARENT.
