A FEW WORDS FROM Father Frank

Tuesday, June 10 marks the last parish council meeting of the year. Special thanks to GARY SCHLUEP, outgoing president, who has done a truly marvelous job coordinating the charisms of the council. DINNER WILL BE SERVED, after the 7:00pm Mass, where I'll give thanks to God for His gift to me of 30 years of uncommon priesting.

Congratulations to all of our high school, college, and graduate school graduates!!!!

If any of you didn't get to make it to the special Mass last week, be sure to stop and see me for a graduation remembrance from your parish family, courtesy of the Ladies Auxiliary.

"I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

— Matthew 9:13

Catholic Word of the Week: Poverty

The condition of want experienced by those who are poor, whom Christ called "blessed," and for whom he had a special love. In imitation of Christ, the Church expresses her concern for the poor by working for justice and solidarity. Poverty is one of the three evangelical counsels whose public profession in the Church is a constitutive element of consecrated life. Poverty of spirit signifies detachment from worldly things and voluntary humility.
